

The Elijah Kellogg Church, Congregational

Heritage Sunday

The first settlers of Harpswell attended church services in the First Parish of North Yarmouth, of which the town was then a part. In 1751, Merriconeag, as Harpswell was then called, became the Second Parish of North Yarmouth.

Religious services were held, it is thought, in the house of a Lieutenant Eaton. In 1753, a church was gathered and the Rev. Elisha Eaton was ordained as its first settled minister. Rev. Eaton served the church until 1764. Rev. Eaton was succeeded by his son, the Rev. Samuel Eaton, who served the church for 58 years.

Work on the first Harpswell Meeting House (the oldest extant in Maine) was begun in 1758 and completed in 1759. Its square pews, high pulpit with sounding board and old galleries are still preserved. The sturdy building stands today as a valued monument of the past, a testament to the character of the people who built it and an inspiration to those down through the years who have tended and kept it.

The first Meeting House in Harpswell Center was the original gathering place for what is now the Elijah Kellogg Congregational Church. The church's second Meeting House, across the street, was dedicated on September 28, 1843. The Reverend Elijah Kellogg was called as minister on April 25, 1844 and served until his death on March 17, 1901. In 1930 the name of the church was changed to honor Rev. Kellogg.

The colonial New England Meeting House was the central focus of nearly every community, as well as an important point of contact and connection for its people. As the original gathering place of the first church in Harpswell, our congregation returns every year in June to celebrate our heritage, our history and ongoing ministry to members, friends and neighbors.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness.
Come into His presence with singing.

Enter His gates with thanksgiving.
Give thanks to Him, and bless His name.

For the Lord is good; His steadfast love endures forever, and His faithfulness to all generations.

Service

*Prayer of Invocation and Lord's Prayer (in Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

First Lesson Exodus 19:1-8 Pew Bible, p. 57

Responsive Reading - from Psalm 24

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it;
the world, and all who live in it.

For He founded it upon the seas,
and established it upon the rivers.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord?
And who shall stand in His holy place?

Those who have clean hands and pure hearts,
who do not lift up their souls to what is false.

They will receive blessing from the Lord, and vindication from the God of their salvation.

Such is the company of those who seek Him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

Reception of New Members

Affirmation of Faith

Minister: Dearly beloved, do you affirm your faith in God, and Jesus as your Lord and Savior?

Candidates: I do.

Minister: Will you make Jesus your example, and take for your rule of life His words: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and soul, and with all your mind and strength, and your neighbor as yourself?"

Candidates: I will.

Minister: In the presence of God and these witnesses, will you give yourself to His service, and take this to be your church? Will you promise to walk together with them in faithfulness and Christian love? And will you promise, as far as you are able, to attend its services, observe its sacraments, share in its work, support, and benevolence, and make it a fruitful branch of the Church of Christ?

Candidates: I will, with the help of God.

Owning of our Church's Covenant (in unison) (Those who are able, please stand.)

We covenant with one another to seek and respond to the Word and Will of God. We purpose to walk together in the ways of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church to witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world, while worshipping God and striving for truth, justice and peace. As did our forebears, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming of the Kingdom of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.

Welcome of the Church

Congregation: We then, as members of this church, gladly welcome you to a part with us in the hopes, the labors and the joys of this Church of Christ. We promise to walk with you in Christian love, and to promote, as far as in us lies, your growth in Christian life.

Prayer of Dedication (New Members and Congregation in unison)

Gracious God, we praise You for your calling us to faith, and Gathering us in to this Church of Christ. We thank You for all our members and friends, and rejoice that You have increased our number. Together, may we live by your Spirit: building up each other in love, sharing the life and work of this church, and serving the world in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Our God, Our Help in Ages Past

Based on Psalm 90
Isaac Watts, 1674-1748

ST. ANNE C.M.
Attr. to William Croft, 1678-1727

1 Our God, our help in a - ges past, Our hope for years to come,
2 Un - der the shad - ow of thy throne Thy saints have dwelt se - cure;
3 Be - fore the hills in or - der stood, Or earth re - ceived her frame,
4 A thou - sand a - ges in thy sight Are like an eve - ning gone,

Our shel - ter from the storm - y blast, And our e - ter - nal home,
Suf - fi - cient is thine arm a - lone, And our de - fense is sure.
From ev - er - last - ing thou art God, To end - less years the same.
Short as the watch that ends the night Be - fore the ris - ing sun. A - men.

- 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
- 6 Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.
