

The Elijah Kellogg Church, Congregational

Heritage Sunday

The first settlers of Harpswell attended church services in the First Parish of North Yarmouth, of which the town was then a part. In 1751, Merriconeag, as Harpswell was then called, became the Second Parish of North Yarmouth.

Religious services were held, it is thought, in the house of a Lieutenant Eaton. In 1753, a church was gathered and the Rev. Elisha Eaton was ordained as its first settled minister. Rev. Eaton served the church until 1764. Rev. Eaton was succeeded by his son, the Rev. Samuel Eaton, who served the church for 58 years.

Work on the first Harpswell Meeting House (the oldest extant in Maine) was begun in 1758 and completed in 1759. Its square pews, high pulpit with sounding board and old galleries are still preserved. The sturdy building stands today as a valued monument of the past, a testament to the character of the people who built it and an inspiration to those down through the years who have tended and kept it.

The first Meeting House in Harpswell Center was the original gathering place for what is now the Elijah Kellogg Congregational Church. The church’s second Meeting House, across the street, was dedicated on September 28, 1843. The Reverend Elijah Kellogg was called as minister on April 25, 1844 and served until his death on March 17, 1901. In 1930 the name of the church was changed to honor Rev. Kellogg.

The colonial New England Meeting House was the central focus of nearly every community, as well as an important point of contact and connection for its people. As the original gathering place of the first church in Harpswell, our congregation returns every year in June to celebrate our heritage, our history and ongoing ministry to members, friends and neighbors.

Introit and Quieting our Hearts for Worship

Call to Worship (Responsive) Psalm 100

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness.
Come into His presence with singing.

Enter His gates with thanksgiving.
Give thanks to Him, and bless His name.

For the Lord is good; His steadfast love endures forever, and His faithfulness to all generations.

Service

*Prayer of Invocation and Lord’s Prayer (in Unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

*Hymn 1 “Our God, Our Help in Ages Past” (see music insert)
vs. 1,2,4,6

First Lesson Exodus 19:1-8 Pew Bible, p. 57

Responsive Reading - from Psalm 24

The earth is the Lord’s and all that is in it;
the world, and all who live within it.

For He has founded it upon the seas,
and established it upon the rivers.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord?
And who shall stand in His holy place?

Those who have clean hands and pure hearts,
who do not lift up their souls to what is false.

They will receive blessing from the Lord, and vindication from the God of their salvation.

Such is the company of those who seek Him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob.
